

I strongly urge you to not weaken the "do not call list" for we cherish our privacy and do not want disturbing solicitating telephone calls at any time during the day or night.

I plead with you to NOT weaken to the strong lobbying, please keep the general public in your most ardent interest.

Respectfully, John Anderson